AMMUNITION GONE; THEN SURRENDERED

Was the Course Pursued By Admiral Nebogatoff.

ROJESTVENSKY IS RESTING EASY

Officers of Russian Battleship Orel Refuse to Accept Parole—Cruiser Lena to Become a Hospital Ship.—An Earthquake Shakes Japan.

St. Petersburg, June 5.—The statement that the ammunition on board Admiral Nebogatoff's ships was exhausted when he surrendered was received with some relief, this being one of the conditions, which, according to the Russian naval regulations, a commander is allowed to surrender, the other conditions being when the crew of a vessel is so depleted as to be unable to manage her and work her guns and when the ship is burned to the water's edge, and about to sink.

Nevertheless, most of the naval men continue to be of the opinion that the seacocks should have been opened and the ship sunk. Stories of the mutiny on board the Russian vessels continue to circulate in the clubs and cafes, but the admiralty will not admit that it has received any information tending to substantiate them. The officials admit, however, that some of the sailors mutinied off the coast of Madagascar, and that a number of them were shot by Admiral Rojestvensky's order.

Rojestvensky Resting Easy.

Tokio, June 3—10:45 a. m.—Rear Admiral Rojestvensky is resting well with no dangerous symptoms and his speedy recovery seems certain.

The officers of the Russian battleship Orel have declined to accept parole. They have been given an additional day to further consider the question.

Cruiser Lena Released.

New York, June 5.—A special dispatch received here from San Francisco, says the officials at Mare Island navy yard have received from Washington formal instructions to permit the Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena, now interned at that yard, to proceed to Asiatic waters for use as a hospital ship. She will put to sea within a month and it is expected her first destination will be a Japanese port where wounded Russians can be taken aboard.

The guns and munitions of war removed from the Lena when she arrived in San Francisco will not be replaced.

Earthquake in Japan.

Tokio, June 3—7:30 p. m.—The governor of Hiroshima province telegraphed that an earthquake which took place on June 2, killed six people, wounded 79 and destroyed 33 houses in Hiroshima and Ujima. The reports from other affected districts are incomplete, but it is believed that the loss of life and the destruction of property has been comparatively slight. The first shocks of the earthquake destroyed the telegraph system which, besides making it impossible to communicate with the earthquake district, cut off Tokio from western Japan and the rest of the world, which gave an impression that some great disaster had taken place.

COMMITTEE MAKES REPORT.

Equitable Squabble Still in Limelight of Financial Circles.

New York, June 5.—Liberal extracts are published today of the report made to the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States' directors by the Frick investigating committee.

The report consists of 38 printed pages. Its principal points follow closely the outline forecasted several days ago and in closing, the committee declared:

Excessive salaries, excessive commissions, excessive expenses and superfluous offices should not be tolerated.

Investments should be carefully made and all precautions employed to insure the location of the moral responsibility of the officers who are charged with the duty of making them. The committee having pursued its investigation of the present management of the society sufficiently far too convince it that the personnel of the management should be radically changed, and the methods of conducting the business of the society brought back to sound legal and ethical lines, begs to be relieved from further duty, duty.

Excitement on Wall Street.

New York, June 5.—Not since the Northern Pacific corner of four years ago has there been so much excitement in financial circles as exists today as a result of yesterday's developments in the Equitable Life Assurance Society's affairs. A stirring contest for control has been expected, but the vehement debate in the directors' meeting, the bitter character of the defense made by James H. Hyde, and the resignation of Messrs. Frick, Harriman and Bliss from the society's directorate, have created a situation wholly unforeseen and indicating a new alignment of forces in high finance astonishing the general public. According to the Herald, Mr. Frick in handing in his resignation said he never again would sit as director in any corporation of which Mr. Hyde was also a director.

High Chinese Refused Admission.

Boston, June 5.—Detention by local immigration officials of four Chinese, three brothers and their sister upon the arrival here aboard the steamer Iverna Thursday, has resulted in a vigorous protest by prominent cotton manufacturers in New England, and the matter has been formally called to the attention of President Roosevelt. The Chinese, who are known by the name of King, and are of high rank in their native country, having been touring the world. They had a letter from Ambassador Choate but were refused admission to the country until each furnished a bond of $500. The cotton manufacturers base their protest on the ground that their business interest in China will be affected materially by such treatment of Chinese of high rank.

Big Elephant Put to Death.

Buffalo, June 5.—Prince, a gigantic trick elephant, was put to death in the Yammerthawl quarry. The beast had shown signs of madness, and his owners decided to kill him. It took a hundred men with block and tackle 90 minutes to put the pachyderm out of existence. Twice the hawers broke, and the dangerous operation of replacing them had to be undertaken by the trainer. Prince offered no resistance, submitting quietly to the commands of his trainer. The hide was removed from he carcass and given to the Buffalo Historical society.

Death a Wedding Guest.

Alpena, Mich., June 5.—Wedding gaiety was quickly turned into sadness and merry laughter changed to tears when Mrs. Arthur Jones, 19, who came from her home in Benton Harbor to attend her sister's wedding at the home of their father, Alfred Girard, in Alpena township, was suddenly seized with convulsions and died. She was apparently well on her arrival and throughout the day entered with spirit into the merrymaking, but when the ceremony was over and the guests were extending congratulations to the happy couple, Mrs. Jones was seized with convulsions and expired very soon after the attack.

BRODIE DUKE SEEKS ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Suit As Brought Is Based On Statutory Grounds.

IT IS CLAIMED HE WAS INSANE

His Marriage to Miss Alice Webb Was the Begining of Sensational Litigation—His Property in Hands of the Trustees Appointed.

New York, June 5—Papers in an action for absolute divorce brought by Brodie L. Duke, were served today on Mrs. Alice Webb-Duke, whose marriage to Mr. Duke in December last was the beginning of sensational litigation.

At the same time it became known hat proceedings pending against Mr. Duke in this county, the object of which were to have him declared incompetent to manage his affairs, have been abandoned by a member of his family at whose intigation the suit was begun. His property, however, is now held by trustees.

Mrs. Alice Webb was married to Mr. Duke in this city on December 19, 1904.

As soon as the family heard of the marriage, secured an order from the supreme court in this county by which Brodie L. Duke was committed, pending an inquiry as to his sanity.

He was confined in a sanitarium for several days without being in communication with any one.

When Mr. Duke was arrested the whole story came out and furnished one of the sensations of the year.

Mr. Duke was finally released from the sanitarium by direction of the court.

The suit for divorce brought by Duke is based on statutory grounds.

FLOOD IN TEXAS GROWS WORSE.

Traffic Suspended and Anthony is Completely Washed Away.

El Paso, Tex., June 5.—The Rio Grande flood situation grows worse each day. The water is several feet higher north of here and several hundred yards of track on the Santa Fe railroad between El Paso and Albuquerque have been washed out.

All traffic here is being diverted over the Southern Pacific to Deming. The town of LaMesa, on the opposite bank of the Rio Grande river, is under 7 feet of water, but no loss of life there is reported. The rise of the river was gradual, and the people of the town had an opportunity to escape the flood.

Anthony, another small town, was completely washed away, but there also the people were warned of the danger and vacated their homes in time.

The river threatens to change its course 5 miles below El Paso and it is possible that further great damage will result.

First Shipment of Texas Melons.

San Antonio, Tex., June 5.—Southwest Texas, or rather the Falfurrias country, on the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railway, has broken another record in the shipment of fruit. The first car of watermelons shipped from a Texas point this season and the earliest in the history of watermelon shipments, was loaded and shipped from Falfurrias. Not only was this a record shipment, but the fruit also brought a record price, $390 being paid for the car. This is the largest price ever paid for a car of Texas melons at a shipping point.

Milwaukee Girl Attempts Suicide.

Chicago, June 5.—Leaving a letter addressed to Nan Patterson, Miss Rosa Shoman, of Milwaukee, was found in Lincoln Park today unconscious and apparently dying from chloroform, but was saved and taken to a hospital. In the young woman's chatelaine bag there was also a letter addressed to her father stating that she was ill and despondent because of inability to obtain employment. She also made reference to a supposed threat to have her placed in some institution.

NOBLEMAN PLANNED PLOT.

Scion of Ancient and Noble Family Accused by Paris Police.

New York, June 5.—Charles Malatao, who is accused by the French police of organizing a plot to assassinate King Alfonso, of Spain, and who has been arrested on this charge, is well known in political and literary circles, cables the Times' correspondent at Paris.

The prisoner belongs to an ancient and noble Neapolitan family. His grandfather, Count Malato, was commander-in-chief of the army of the last king of Naples. He had rank of field marshal, and suppressed the popular insurrection against the dynasty with rigor. The field marshal's son, Charles, father, took the side of the commune in Paris and was banished for life to the penal settlement of New Caledonia, where Charles was born. After the general amnesty extended to the condemned anarchists and communists, Charles and his father, who is over 90 years old, came to Paris. For a time Charles Malatao collaborated with Henri Rocheforte, but they disagreed on the Dreyfus case, Malatao taking the side of the condemned captain.

Socialist journals have since then received his articles, which are considered remarkable for their polished literary style.

RUSSIAN WARSHIPS ARRIVE AT MANILA

NAVY DEPARTMENT IS NOTIFIED

American Admiral Escorts Ships to Port—If Undamaged or Seaworthy, They Must Move on in 24 Hours. May Be Interned Until End of War.

Manila, June 5.—Rear Admiral Enquist, who was commander of the heavy cruiser squadron of the Russian fleet arrived in the bay at 9 o'clock this evening on board his flagship, the protected cruiser Aurora, accompanied by the protected cruisers Oleg and Jemtchug.

All the vessels were more or less damaged, and there were many wounded men on board.

Rear Admiral Train on board his flagship, the battleship Ohio, with the Wisconsin, Oregon, Raleigh and Cincinnati, was outside Corregidor island maneuvering when the Aurora saluted with 13 guns and the Ohio answered.

Admiral Train and his squadron accompanied the Russian vessels to Manila.

Washington, June 5.—The navy department today received a cablegram from Vice Admiral Train dated Manila, stating that when cruising off Lingayen gulf this morning he sighted three Russian vessels, the Aurora, the Oleg and Jemtchug, close inshore. He said he found many wounded on board and escorted the vessels to Manila. The admiral added that he will send further particulars tomorrow.

This cablegram was received at the navy department shortly after the Associated press bulletin from Manila, and was transmitted by Admiral Converse, chief of the bureau of navigation to Secretary Morton at his residence.

Earlier in the day Admiral Train had cabled the navy department that several warships supposed to be Russian, had been seen maneuvering off the coast of Luzon. He further reported that he had started at once with some of the vessels of his fleet for the port of Susi, about 120 miles o the northward of Manila, on the gulf of Lingayen, to investigate.

Admiral Train's dispatch was immediately sent to the White House by Secretary Morton, where it was discussed by the president and Secretary Taft. It is said at the state department that the Russian vessels will be treated precisely as were those which arrived in the Chinese ports during the earlier stages of the war, namely, they will be allowed to remain 24 hours, if undamaged and seaworthy. Otherwise, they may make absolutely necessary repairs or lastly, they may be interned until the end of the war.

It is expected here that the latter course will be followed.

Instructions will be cabled Admiral Train this afternoon.

Sixteen Lives Reported Lost.

New Orleans, La., June 5.—The steamer H. M. Carter struck the bridge of the Louisiana Railway and Navigation company at Alexandria, La., about 11 o'clock tonight and was wrecked. The boat, it is said, broke in two, and is a complete loss. It is reported that several lives were lost, but this cannot be confirmed. The long distance telephone operator at Alexandria says that no lives were lost. A railroad operator a mile and a half from the wreck claims that 16 persons were drowned.

North Carolinan Indicted.

Washington, June 5.—Louis R. Smith, of North Carolina, formerly an employe in the general land office, was indicted today by the grand jury of the District of Columbia, on a charge of abstracting and selling 30 land warrants. Smith was employed in the land office from July 1, 1901, to July 6, 1904, and it was during this time that the warrants were taken. He confessed the theft when confronted with the evidence against him. The warrants taken were worth $5,000.

PROF. J. H. BRINSON GOES TO ROLLINS

Where He Takes Charge of the Business Department.

MOST EXCELLENT INSTRUCTOR

For Four Years at the Head of East Florida Seminary Business Department—Has Made Many Friends—All Wish Him Success.

Prof. J. H. Brinson, who has been the worthy principal of the business department of the East Florida Seminary in this city the past four years, since the opening of that branch in 1901, and for five years director of the summer normal at Orange Springs, has been chosen principal of the Rollins Business School at Winter Park, and will begin his new work at the twenty-first opening of Rollins College on October 1, next.

Prof. Brinson was born in Marion county and is one of the veteran instructors of the State, having taught nine years in the public schools, five summers at Orange Springs, and the past four years in East Florida Seminary, besides conducting commercial schools in several Florida cities. Achieving marked success as the presiding spirit of a commercial school, he has been a practical business man as well. His business courses were taken in three well known commercial colleges and his academic courses at the White Springs Normal and the Bowling Green (Ky.) Normal School, of which he is a graduate. Prof. Brinson is enthusiastic and his future work at Rollins will undoubtedly meet the expectations of the college authorities who elected him.

In speaking with Col. Henry S. Chubb, one of the trustees of Rollins College, he informed The Sun that he had kept a close watch of the conduct of Professor Brinson, and when he saw that the East Florida Seminary was a thing of the past, he made an effort to secure him for Rollins. He spoke in highest terms of the professor, and seemed pleased to think they had secured his services.

Professor Brinson has made many warm friends in Gainesville who will regret to see him and his estimable family bid farewell to our city. As an instructor he has proven most thorough, taking a deep interest in his work. He is a thorough Christian gentleman, a member of Mt. Vernon Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias, and a most genial gentleman withal. Although somewhat reserved, he has a faculty of drawing friends to him, and in a social way he is an agreeable companion, possessed of a fund of good ideas and dignity to command the respect of all who know him.

A Delightful Birthday Surprise—Local and Personal Notes.

Tacoma, June 5.—A delightful surprise picnic dinner was given Mrs. R. M. Chamberlain last Wednesday, at her elegant home, by relatives and friends in honor of her birthday. After a bountiful dinner, eaten in the pretty dining-room, ice cream, sherbet and cake were served. Most of the afternoon was spent in listening to instrumental and vocal music rendered by Miss Martie Chamberlain, Mrs. R. M. Chamberlain and Mrs. F. H. Clyatt. The day was one to be remembered with pleasure.

A number of the young people of this neighborhood accompanied the baseball team to Gainesville Thursday, to witness the game between them and Gainesville. We regret to say our boys were beaten.

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole Says that Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

Miss Emma Cole

Girls' modesty and oversensitiveness often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, because they withhold their confidence at this critical period.

A mother should come to her child's aid and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change and start the menstrual period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tullahoma, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had soreness and pain in my side, headaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all failed to help me.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing from girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do as much for them."

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice ask her to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

FEAR ENTERTAINED FOR BOAT.

Yacht Apache Which Entered Race Not Yet Heard From.

New York, June 5.—Friends of Elmund Ralph, of the New York Stock Exchange, owner of the bark-rigged auxiliary yacht Apache, which sailed May 18 in the race for the emperor's cup, are beginning to express fears for the racer's safety.

All the other boats have finished, and the Apache has not even been sighted since she was last reported by the steamer Columbia, May 22.

In the Apache's course, less than 500 miles eastward was a field of icebergs, and some fear is expressed for her safety. The Apache was well supplied with small boats, life rafts and provisions.

Besides Mr. Randolph she had on its, both well known yachtsmen; Stuyvesant Leroy, R. Burnside Poole, W. Gordon Fellowes, Joseph Harriman and Dr. Watson B. Morris. The crew numbered 35.

THE HOTEL BREAKFAST.

How the American Meal Appears to an Englishman.

The American hotel breakfast is representative of the general delight in good living. The length of the menu and the variety of the dishes bespeak an appetite that in the early morning can relish a meal little less substantial than a dinner.

The hotel breakfast begins with fruit—grape fruit if it happens to be in season, the bitter sweetness of which seems designated by nature to awaken the appetite. And there is really a bewildering problem when next you are asked to choose among the cereals—from the old fashioned oatmeal to all kinds of predigested preparations. Cooked oysters in every style are offered on the menu, and even in the best restaurants a plate of oysters costs only a shilling. The choice of fish can be made from a long list—of kinds unknown in England, including weakfish, bluefish and shad, with its delicate roe. It must be out of compliment to English travelers that herring and haddock are imported. You see them very seldom on an American breakfast table.

When boiled eggs are eaten they are opened by the waiter into a glass, no small quantity of butter being added—salt butter, for "sweet" butter is seldom served. With chops or steak the American, who never eats cold meats at breakfast, usually orders potatoes, and the meal may be brought to a close with pancakes. These hot cakes, which are made of wheat, buckwheat, rice or cornmeal, are eaten smothered in maple sirup, a delicious treacle obtained from the sap of maple trees.

The American drinks coffee for breakfast—such a coffee as you may find in Paris, but not in London—and that he does not prefer tea would need no other explanation than the failure to understand the art of making it.—London Mail.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good.

"I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure; then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick-dust-like substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." Foley's Kidney Cure will cure every form of kidney or bladder disease. J. W. McCollum & Co.

THE FIRST PIE PLATES.

They Were Made by the German Potters of Philadelphia.

The first pie plates were made early in the eighteenth century by the German potters who settled in Philadelphia.

After the clay was prepared it was cut into small pieces by means of a brass wire and taken to the workbench to be made into plates.

The clay was roughly beaten into a flattened form looking like a colossal buckwheat cake. This was rolled out into a thin sheet with a roller much like a rolling pin, and then a disk cutter was used to cut it into circular pieces of the required diameter. This bat, as it was called, was then laid on a board until partly dry and was then decorated.

The slip decoration was applied by means of a slip cup, an earthen vessel with goose quills inserted into the openings, through which the liquid slip was made to trickle over the ware in a variety of patterns, just as icing is applied to cake at the present time. The slip mixture was of a creamy color made of white clay and water.

Favorite motives for decorations were flowers, fruits and scenes, tulips being a special pet.

A Lutheran minister asked his potter to dine with him to discuss designs for a set of plates he wished to order. As the potter was accustomed to dine at 12, he was almost famished when the clergyman's 2 o'clock dinner was served. When the set of plates came home, each with a pious sentiment interwoven among the marginal decorations, the minister laughed to find an extra plate, bearing this inscription: "I have never been at a place where they dine so late." So much for Pennsylvania-German humor.—Philadelphia Ledger.

ECZEMA A FLESH FIRE

Those afflicted with Eczema know more than can be told of the suffering imposed by this "flesh fire." It usually begins with a slight redness of the skin, which gradually spreads, followed by blisters and pustules discharging a thin, sticky fluid that dries and scales off, leaving an inflamed surface, and at times the itching and burning are almost unbearable. While any part of the body is liable to be attacked, the hands, feet, back, arms, face and legs are the parts most often afflicted. The cause of Eczema is a too acid condition of the blood. The circulation becomes loaded with fiery, acid poisons that are forced through the glands and pores of the skin which set the flesh aflame. Since the cause of the disease is in the blood it is a waste of time to try to cure it with local applications; the cause must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. has no equal as a remedy for Eczema; it enters the blood and forces out the poison through the natural channels, and builds up the entire system. The skin becomes smooth and soft again, and the Eczema is cured. Cases that have persistently refused to be cured under the ordinary treatment yield to its purifying, cooling effect on the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any advice wished, without charge.

Eczema made its appearance on my left limb the size of my thumb in 1893, and spread until it was as large as my hand, burning, itching and paining me, and for which I could get no relief, until seeing the other cures advertised by you I wrote and secured the advise of your physicians, commenced S. S. S. and it cured me.

STARKE DEFEATED.

The Central City Colored Team Did Them to a Turn.

The Starke baseball team of husky colored players, who defeated the Central City colored team of this city at Starke a short time ago, was beaten very gracefully at the ball park in this city yesterday afternoon.

The Gainesville team had Walker and Carolina as their battery, and the way the Starke sluggers vanished before the curves of Old Carolina was a reaction to the sombre fans.

Purnell and Ellerson composed the Starke firing line, and while there was not so many hits made off the curves of the stalwart Ellerson, their support was so poor they would have been justified in calling on the county for aid. The score by innings is as follows:

		R	H	E
Gainesville	35003032 x	16	9	8
Starke	000000010	1	2	12

The Gainesville pitcher had 16 strikeouts to his credit, while only one of the home team failed to connect with the sphere. Bertram Sherrod was the umpire and he did things "square."

Another game will be played this afternoon and Manager Player of the three C's says that the Starke players will be over their stage fright and a scientific rendering of the national game may be expected. Play will be called at 3:30 sharp and there will be plenty of amusement.

DUCHESS CECILIA IN BERLIN.

Berlin, June 5.—The business of the government paused and a million or so of persons took a holiday today to welcome an 18-year-old girl who some time will be the German empress.

Her way was rose-strewn, numbers of children sang a greeting, the old guilds with the emblems of their trades lined the route, artillery sounded during an immensity of cheering, while at the end of her progress through the people the imperial family and all the great personages of state joined with the emperor and the crown Prince Frederick William in receiving her at the palace. The day was brilliant and the whole spectacle was effectively staged.

The Duchess Cecilia, of Meckelenburg-Schwerin, who in her full title is also princess of the Wends, arrived from Schwerin at noon with her mother, the Grand Duchess Anastasia, her brother, Frederick Francis, the reigning grand duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, his wife, and a numerous following. The emperor, empress and crown prince, the latter's five brothers and the little Princess Victoria, met the party at the railroad station and breakfasted with them in the Chateau Bellevue situated in the garden about 3 miles from the imperial palace.

Convicts' Food Poisoned.

Columbia, S. C., June 5.—State Chemist Burney has found arsenic in the remnants of a cabbage dinner which was given to the prisoners in the state prison, and which made over one hundred of them ill, while Superintendent of the Prison Griffith discovered tracees of paris green on the window sill of the kitchen. The men are now out of danger. Suspicion points strongly to one of the convicts

SILENT SUFFERERS.

Modest Women Suffer in Silence Rather Than Consult a Physician.

A sense of modesty frequently prevents women who are really sick and suffering from seeking the aid of a physician. They do not even consult their family doctor. They know that they are sick; that their periods are painful; that in all probability they are suffering from ovarian troubles, or that they have those dragging pains which always point to prolapsus or falling of the womb. They know they need help, yet do not know how to obtain it.

To such we speak in candor and in honesty. G. F. P. (Gerstle's Female Panacea) will positively cure all such conditions, no matter how long standing or how stubborn.

This is gospel truth, attested and proved by the grateful testimony of thousands of women who have been rescued from lives of sickness and sorrow by G. F. P.

"Ah!" you say, "but perhaps it won't do any particular good in my case."

Well, try it at our expense. Buy a bottle from your druggist, or if he cannot supply you, send $1 00 to the Gerstle Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and they will send it prepaid. Take it as directed, and when the bottle is finished, if you can conscientiously say you have not been benefited, your money will be returned instantly by the man from whom you bought it.

This is a very different proposition from paying your physician large fees, whether he helps you or not.

If you think your case presents any unusual conditions demanding special treatment and you would like advice, write to the Ladies' Health Club, care of Gerstle Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and your letter will be answered by sympathetic women who have your welfare at heart.

SIRE AND SON GUILTY.

Son Killed Man and Father Held as an Accessory.

Atlanta, June 5.—Mac Patterson, 45 years old, and his son, Burrell Patterson, 22 years old, who were this week convicted of the killing of William Stewart, in Franklin, Heard county, on April 20, 1904, the father receiving a life sentence and the son a sentence to be hanged on June 30, were brought to Atlanta Thursday afternoon by Sheriff Lipford and lodged in the tower for safekeeping.

Their trial began Monday, Mac Patterson being tried first and receiving his verdict, and his son going on trial Tuesday and having his verdict rendered Wednesday.

On April 20, 1904, the Pattersons met Stewart in Franklin. It was election day, and all the men were drinking. It appears that Stewart owed Mac Patterson money, and Burrell Patterson asked him for it. Stewart did not have it, and the men had a dispute. Burrell went to his father and told him that Stewart would not pay him up, when the old man handed his son a revolver and told him to kill Stewart. Burrell returned and shot Stewart, killing him almost instantly.

Arrested on Serious Charge.

Macon, Ga., June 5.—A warrant has been issued charging Henry Simmons with a misdemeanor in connection with the burial of the two twins given birth by the woman who was deserted here last Saturday. He is charged with being the man who left her, and Coroner Young had the warrant issued when he discovered the bodies of the babies in the Ocmulgee river and held an inquest. He charged Simmons with thus disposing of the bodies. The woman has been sent to the city hospital and is critically ill. She has given several names but she is still thought to have come from south Georgia. Simmons is a telephone lineman.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who has suffered quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by all druggists.

Indiana men who are addicted to the use of liquor must be easy marks. A fakir has been selling them "drink cure" that on analysis was found to be merely water. Its taste had become wholly unknown to them, not being accustomed to taking anything "on the side."

The Jacksonville Daily Sun appeared for the last time on Saturday evening. Mr. Sutherland stated that his time was fully occupied with other business and he could not devote any to the paper. We are sorry to see the venture prove a failure, but the man who hasn't got time and money to spare, had better keep out of daily paper business.

A DOZEN REASONS

Why the State University Should be Located in Gainesville:

BECAUSE—It is an ideal location for a university, being near the geographical center of the State and near the center of population, easily accessible from all sections.

BECAUSE—For fifty years it has been distinctively a college town.

BECAUSE—Its citizenship is thoroughly imbued with a healthy and enthusiastic educational sentiment

BECAUSE—The new University would start off with the accumulated power and prestige of the East Florida Seminary's fifty years of uninterrupted success.

BECAUSE—The wealth of tradition and sentiment which has grown up and about the Seminary would be a rich inheritance to the new University.

BECAUSE—There would be at once transferred to the new University all the strong affection and powerful influence of the large body of the Seminary Alumni, which is now larger than that of all the other State schools combined.

BECAUSE—Of the high value placed by her citizens upon educational advantages, as is shown by her splendid public and private schools and by the hearty support given the East Florida Seminary during its long and useful career.

BECAUSE—Of the religious training and large number of scientific lectures given during the National Winter Bible Conference and the Florida Chautauqua held there annually.

BECAUSE—Of the religious character of the citizens of the community, as evidenced by the large congregations and beautiful church edifices.

BECAUSE—After thorough investigation as to its healthfulness and desirability, it was selected over all competitors by the Odd Fellows as the location of their National Sanitarium.

BECAUSE—Of the purity and abundant supply of water. This is shown by analysis to be almost identical with the famous Poland Springs water of Maine.

BECAUSE—The moral atmosphere of the city, as shown by the purity of home life; the high moral character of its citizens; the strict enforcement of the prohibition laws—the fact that no whiskey is sold, would be of great benefit to the student body.—Tampa Tribune.

GIVE IT TO GAINESVILLE.

South Florida will be a unit for Gainesville as the proper place for the location of the State University, says The Tampa Morning Tribune. There is no town in the State that can begin to compare with it in the way of attractions and environments peculiarly adapted to the purposes that are so essential for the location of an educational institution. Besides, this section of the State has a friendly feeling for its neighboring city and hopes that it will be the place selected.

The East Florida Seminary is probably the only State institution in Florida that has not at times been laboring under a suspicion. It has been free from taint from its very infancy and is pronounced by friend and foe as one of the best schools of its kind in the South. It is not the desire of The Tribune to cast any aspersions on the aspirations of other cities, but there is no denying the fact that the capital of Alachua has charms and inducements that the committee cannot overlook when it comes to decide upon the proper location of the State University.

FROM THE STATE PRESS.

Governor Broward has appointed Hon. Isaac A. Stewart judge of the criminal court of record and J. W. Perkins solicitor for the same court for the ensuing four years. The appointments were confirmed by the Senate Wednesday. A few of the disgruntled political enemies of these two gentlemen endeavored to induce the Governor to cast party law aside and appoint others to the offices. Messrs. Stewart and Perkins were nominated by the Democratic primary and were therefore the choice of the great majority of the voters of Volusia county.—Daytona Gazette-News.

If The Jacksonville Metropolis is looking for a really apt scriptural quotation to place at the head of its editorial colum, it might take a glance at Proverbs 27, 2, where the writer said, "Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips."—Miami Record.

A Nice Point of Law.

During Queen Victoria's reign one of the solicitors of the queen who had jurisdiction over capital cases chanced to be a man named Bacon. By a curious chance a man named Hogg was condemned to death under his jurisdiction. The day before the execution Hogg sent for his executioner, Bacon. The prisoner pleaded for interference in his case because of his claims of relationship to Bacon. The solicitor, always ready with a reply, answered: "I have no proof of our relationship. You are doubtless mistaken. At any rate, the execution must take place, for only in that way can matters be set right. Hogg is not Bacon until it is dead." It is said the prisoner laughed in spite of himself.

A Dampener.

"I don't know any sensation as humiliating as that of being told after you have just finished your best story, 'I've heard that before—but in a different way, of course,' or 'I heard that another way,' or some other polite way of saying 'Chestnut!'" said a prominent lawyer. "If there is anything that dumps cold water on the story teller and the audience it is that sort of thing. In some parts of the country it would almost mean gun play. I entirely agree with the old Kentucky colonel who used to say, 'No gentleman, sah, ever heard a story befoh, sir.'"—San Francisco Chronicle.

IN MEMORIAM.

Written on the Death of the Late W. R. Anderson.

God's will be done; but we poor mortals can scarcely understand his mysterious ways. But He knows best, and in taking our dear friend, W. R. Anderson, He has given the angels a companion over whom they can rejoice; and although he is lost to us here on earth, he is even now watching over us from the far-off shore. On earth he was a friend, tried, trusted and true, never shirking his duty, no matter where it led. He was one of the few men who had no enemies. No word was ever spoken against him. He was a kind, good, fond and true husband, a warm and true friend, a faithful brother and an ardent Christian. It has been my pleasure to visit the sick with him, and no better or truer friend to the sick could be found.

When I left here only two short months ago, his was the last hand to clasp mine in friendship and wish me Godspeed. Now, on returning, I find no welcome face; but, instead, find that all that was mortal of my friend was laid away to await the resurrection morn. I could not realize that he was gone until I reached the church he loved so well; then it was that I could realize what I had lost. His was always the first face to be seen; his warm and welcome hand the first to press yours; his smile the brightest and most winsome. In him our church has lost a friend that cannot be replaced. He was unobtrusive but always to be relied upon. Many are the long and confidential talks we have had, and many are the pleasant hours we have spent together, and now it is hard to know that I will never see his friendly face or feel the clasp of his generous hand.

But such is the way of all flesh, and those we can least afford to lose are the ones to go; but, thank God, he was prepared, for no better young man ever lived, and our loss is his gain, for he from the throne on high cannot wish to be with us again. Sleep on, dear friend, for the joys of the blessed are thine. Never more will we see thee, never more feel the clasp of thy hand. While we miss thee, and thy place in our hearts can never be filled, yet we would not wish thee to leave thy throne in the skies.

A FRIEND.

Cures Old Sores.

Westmoreland, Kans., May 5, 1902. Ballard Snow Liniment Co.: Your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow Liniment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Sophia J. Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

NOW IS THE TIME TO PAINT.

Important Memorandum.—The paint is the most important factor in painting operations, done by a good painter, with the best quality of paint, costing say $40.00 a gallon, will use 4½ gallons. The same paint applied by a dauber ($20.00 paint, $20.00 paint), will use only one gallon. Which the "pay-per-day" of the good painter's job a $10.00—the poor painter's, $30.00.

The oil! linseed oil! Just pure linseed is the "life"—the one great requisite of good paint for which there is no substitute—and the sure way to get the pure, fresh linseed oil is to buy the oil and separately. For every gallon of Kinloch Paint buy one gallon of linseed oil. This makes two gallons of paint, ready for use. You then know that the paint you're putting on your house is alive—"the genuine oil in it," and paint is not paint unless it contains 50% of really pure oil. We will further explain the virtues of Kinloch Paint if you will call and see us.

BUYING RUBIES IN BURMA.

Grips and Signs Used in Bargaining For Precious Stones.

The peculiar business methods of oriental merchants are illustrated by the manner of buying rubies in Burma, says the Jewelers' Circular-Weekly. In the examination of rubies artificial light is not used, the merchants holding that full sunlight alone can bring out the color and brilliancy of the gems. Sales must therefore take place between 9 a. m. and 3 p. m., and the sky must be clear.

The purchaser, placed near a window, has before him a large copper plate. The sellers come to him one by one, and each empties upon this plate his little bag of rubies. The purchaser proceeds to arrange them for valuation in a number of small heaps. The first division is into three grades, according to size. Each of these groups is again divided into three piles, according to color, and each of these piles is again divided into three groups, according to shape. The bright copper plate has a curious use. The sunlight reflected from it through the stone brings out with true rubies a color effect different from that with red spinels and tourmalines, which are thus easily separated.

The buyer and seller then go through a very peculiar method of bargaining by signs, or, rather, grips, in perfect silence. After agreeing upon the fairness of the classification they join their right hands, covered with a handkerchief or the flap of a garment, and by grips and pressures mutually understood among all these dealers they make, modify and accept proposals of purchase and sale.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon, as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by all druggists.

HYPOCRITE AND VILLAIN.

The Gentle Terms a Playgoer Once Applied to Forrest.

A number of professional men were exchanging reminiscences of Edwin Forrest, the great tragedian. One of them told the story of Forrest's experience in the west, which was not only of interest in itself, but also a tribute to the art of the actor.

The play was "Virginius," and Forrest was at his best. In the scene where he slays his daughter the audience was almost stricken with awe, and not a sound was heard until the scene was concluded, after which the artist was greeted with overpowering applause. In the following act Virginius comes on the stage looking worn and distracted. The reaction has set in, he is frenzied over the loss of his daughter, and he walks up and down, crying out: "Virginia, Virginia! Where is my child?"

An old miner, who occupied a front row in the orchestra and who had been terribly wrought up by the murder scene, could stand this no longer and, arising in his place, shouted out in loud tones, freighted with intense indignation:

"Why, you old villain, you killed her in the market house in the last act. You know it well enough. You are a hypocrite as well as a villain."

The laughter and applause that greeted this unexpected turn in the performance made it necessary to ring down the curtain.—Harper's Weekly.

Just What Everyone Should Do.

Mr. J. T. Barber of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand ready for instant use. Attacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by all druggists.

Chicken For Invalids.

Some people think it would be impossible to boil less than a whole chicken to produce a satisfactory result, and, as an invalid can only eat a very small portion, the rest would have to be eaten by other persons—a needless extravagance, as a half or even a quarter of a fowl can be prepared thus, and so both monotony and waste can be avoided.

If possible, stew the piece in stock enough to cover the chicken, but if this is not at hand put an onion, a carrot and a few pieces of bacon rind into the water to give it flavor. Bring the liquid to the boil, put in the piece of chicken, boil for a minute and then pull back the pan off the fire and simmer gently until the chicken is tender.

When it is done take it out and make a sauce by adding to one cupful of the stock in which it was boiled four tablespoonfuls of milk and a beaten egg. Stir this over the fire for a minute or two, but do not let it boil, and serve while hot.

Too Busy to Work.

The luxury of physical inactivity appears to be fully appreciated in the south, writes Mr. Bradford Torrey in "Nature's Invitation," and as an illustration he tells of a walk he took near Miami, Fla., and of a conversation he overheard:

I was walking away from the city at a rather brisk pace one morning when I passed a lonesome shanty. A white man sat upon the rude piazza, and another man and a boy stood near.

"Are you going to work today?" asked the boy of the occupant of the piazza.

"No," was the answer, quick and pithy.

"Why not?"

"I ain't got time."

I do not expect to hear the philosophy of indolence more succintly and pointedly stated if I live a thousand years.

Will Cure Consumption.

A. A. Herren, Finch, Ark., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." You never heard of anyone using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied. J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Happy Pair.

Sylla—How is it that you and your husband agree so well? Mrs. Ray—Well, you see, he has given up his club. Sylla—And you? Mrs. Ray—I have given up amateur cookery. With those two destroyers of domestic felicity gone, why should we not be happy?

Every Heart-Ache

Every pain in the breast, difficult breathing, palpitation, fluttering or dizzy spell means that your heart is straining itself in its effort to keep in motion. This is dangerous.

Some sudden strain from overexertion or excitement will completely exhaust the nerves, or rupture the walls or arteries of the heart, and it will stop.

Relieve this terrible strain at once with Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. It invigorates and strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, stimulates the heart action, and relieves the pain and misery.

"I suffered terribly with heart disease. I have been treated by different physicians for my trouble without results. I went to a physician in Memphis, who claimed that I had dropsy of the heart. He put the X-ray on me, and in connection with his medicine he came near making a finish of me. Some time before this a Mr. Young, of St. Louis, was in our town. He saw my condition, and recommended Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to me. I gave it little attention until my return from Memphis, when I concluded to try it, and am pleased to say three bottles cured me.

CHEAP PLAYING CARDS.

Why a Professional Is Always Suspicious of Them.

The other afternoon along Nassau and Fulton streets in New York city fakirs were offering playing cards of fair quality at 10 cents a pack. These were of the regular twenty-five cent variety, and the ace of spades bore the imprint of a big concern, but the boxes were not labeled, and slight imperfections explained their reduced price.

A professional card player purchased a pack, and when he had reached the restaurant for which he and his friend were headed he carefully compared the backs and held the cards at various angles to the light.

"I was wondering if some one was trying to make a 'killing,'" he explained as he slipped the pack back in his pocket. "It would be an easy matter to steer some fellow up against those cheap cards and then profit by your knowledge of the markings on the back. He would never suppose that cards purchased upon the street could be regarded with suspicion.

"Marked backs have largely given way to advantage playing between two apparent strangers or to the manipulation of the deal, but it is no uncommon thing to plant marked cards when the probable results warrant it.

"I know a man who for three years played cards in a club and for the greater part of that time he could read the backs as easily as he could the face. His run of luck was remarkable, but he never dealt crookedly and he never used any mechanical aid, so that it was supposed that his good fortune was merely poker luck.

"As a matter of fact the cards supplied to the steward were 10 cents a pack cheaper than they sold at wholesale. He thought that they were being stolen from a firm by an employee, and his purchases of cards were shrouded in the deepest sort of mystery.

"Actually the cards were purchased in another city, marked and sent on to the man who acted as salesman, and every pack was paid for at the regular rate and represented a loss to the seller, which was repaid a thousandfold in the advantage it gave the player. The club was composed of wealthy men, and the cleanup was something more than $40,000.

"The trick has been played in a thousand ways, and if a big game was on a dozen packs from one of those baskets would have paid a rich profit to whoever got up the idea. In this case it merely happened to be a lot of seconds sold for a trifle above the cost of the revenue stamp, but I'm more than suspicious of cheap cards, no matter where I find them."—Buffalo Times.

An Advertising Trick.

One of the most amusing incidents relative to sleek advertising was a trick on the Chicago newspapers several years ago. One of the partners of a firm went into court and filed a bill for injunction to restrain the other partner from sacrificing the goods in their store at figures far below first cost.

The plaintiff set forth in detail that his partner had with some insane desire marked all the goods in the store down below cost. Then he went into details and showed how different articles were being sacrificed, notwithstanding his protest, and asked the court to issue an injunction and restrain the fractious partner. It was a strange fight, and the newspapers took it up and devoted columns to the novel case.

The result was that people on the lookout for bargains flocked to the store and purchased goods. Day after day the hearing for an injunction was delayed, and finally, when the free ad. had been worked to its end, the suit was dismissed without prosecution, the whole cost to the firm for thousands of dollars' worth of advertising being about $25.

A GREEDY CORMORANT.

He Devoured Two Pounds of Stones as Part of a Meal.

When I was a keeper in the National Zoological park in Washington I observed a remarkable example of the well known greediness of the cormorant.

Four little cormorants came to the zoo and were placed in a cage in which dogs had once been kept. Outside was a pebbly yard in which the dogs had exercised. The cormorants waddled about this yard and seemed to be having a fine time until one morning I noticed that one of them was sitting on the ground unable to rise. He did not waddle up to get his meal of whole fish, each usually about half as long as his own body, and as the others came rushing toward me to get their share I knew that he was ill. I went into the cage and lifted him up. What was my amazement to hear something grating and clanking inside of him! And he seemed surprisingly heavy. I at once called the head keeper, who decided to investigate by means of a surgical operation.

He took out two pounds of stones, one of which was four inches long, two and a half inches wide and about half an inch thick! The poor chap seemed to feel relieved. In a few days he became convalescent, ate his food regularly and seemed to be doing well. Then that hooked bill reached under the feathers and tore out some of the surgeon's stitches, which were undoubtedly irritating, as the wound was beginning to heal. As a result of this interference the wound opened, and, as the weather was hot, the patient died five days after the operation.—St. Nicholas.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Geo. A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence county, N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure." J. W. McCollum & Co.

In the life of John Bunyan by W. Hale White the author of "Pilgrim's Progress" is described as follows: "He appeared in countenance to be a stern and rough temper, but in conversation mild and affable, not given to loquacity or much discourse in company unless some urgent occasion required it. He never boasted of himself or his parts. He abhorred lying and swearing, being just in all that lay in his power to his word, not seeming to revenge injuries, loving to reconcile differences and make friendship with all. He had a sharp, quick eye, accompanied with an excellent discerning of persons, being of good judgment and quick wit. As for his person, he was tall of stature, strong boned, though not corpulent, somewhat of a ruddy face, with sparkling eyes, wearing his hair on his upper lip after the old British fashion, his hair reddish, but in his latter days time had sprinkled it with gray. His nose was well set, but not declining or bending, and his mouth moderately large, his forehead something high and his habit always plain and modest."

The Art of Drawn Work.

Perfilado, or drawn needlework, occupies the same place in Mexico as lace does in Brussels. The city of Matamoros is the center of its production, and large quantities of this beautiful work are exported to the United States. Women and girls are employed in the manufacture, and some of it is very expensive, for a year may be required to make a single piece. The linen or silk is placed in a frame, the threads are drawn out one way, and with a needle and the finest spool thread the design is worked. Perfilado is taught in the public schools. Among the articles made are handkerchiefs, tablecloths, bedspreads and covers for chairs or lounges. The work is hard and difficult, and the earnings are on an average less than a shilling a day.

Dying of Famine

Is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm. Myers of Courtney, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr. King's New Discovery, which quickly and perfectly cured me." Prompt relief and sure cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, etc. Positively prevents pneumonia. Guaranteed at all drug stores. Price 50c and $1 a bottle. Trial bottle free.

DELL-LIDDON NUPTIALS.

Will be One of the Finest June Weddings of the Season.

The Ocala Banner, in giving an account of the Dell-Liddon nuptials, which are to be consummated in that city June 7th, says:

"The largest event in social circles for June will be the wedding of pretty Miss Johnnie Liddon and Dr. James Maxwell Dell at nine o'clock Wednesday evening.

"The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Liddon, on Ocklawaha avenue, and will be an al fresco affair, the ceremony to be performed in the yard.

"Mr. Dell will have as his best man, his only brother, Mr. Sam T. Dell, of Gainesville.

"Miss Liddon's attendants will be her two sisters, Misses Iola and Caro Liddon, maids of honor; matrons of honor, Mrs. Mallory Liddon and Mrs. Charles V. Miller of this city. Mrs. Sam T. Dell of Gainesville, Mrs. J. B. Hiers of Jacksonville, and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, (formerly Miss Clarice Barksdale) of Augusta, Ga. The bridesmaids will be the bride's three cousins, Miss Grace Hatchell and Misses Evelyn and Rhoda Liddon, and Misses Valeta Potter and Louella Mellon of Tampa.

"The little sister of the bride, Miss Frances Liddon, and her little cousin, Miss Janet Matthews of Starke, will be the flower girls and Ellen Stripling will act as the small ring bearer. All of the attendants will wear white except the three little girls, who will be in pink.

"This wedding, on account of the popularity of the contracting parties, will be largely attended, and will be a beautiful event."

Will Come to Gainesville.

Dr. C. F. Dawson's family—Mrs. Dawson, Miss Helen Dawson and Ralph, leave Saturday to spend the summer in Baltimore with Mrs. Dawson's parents and other relatives. On their return to Florida in the fall they will reside in Gainesville, where Dr. Dawson will go into general practice in addition to being the regular veterinarian to the Spring Park Stock Farm near that place. Lake City will feel the loss in the departure of these people. We have been bettered by their residence here among us. Dr. Dawson has been State veterinarian for a number of years and has held the chair of physiology and allied medical subjects in the university, where he was well liked. Their many warm friends here will regret exceedingly their leaving, and we can only say that our loss will be Gainesville's gain.—Lake City Index.

Those who are acquainted with Dr. Dawson in this vicinity speak in highest terms of his ability as a physician and veterinarian, and The Sun joins with all in according him a hearty welcome to Gainesville.

Attention, K. of P.

The regular weekly meeting of Mt. Vernon Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias, will be held at the castle hall this evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, and visiting brothers will be welcome. It is expected there will be work in the ranks. J. A. Phifer, C. C.
W. R. McKinstry, K. of R. & S.

No Secret About It.

It is no secret that for cuts, burns, ulcers, fever sores, sore eyes, boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory of Hope, Tex. 25c at all drug stores.

Attention, Ye Needy.
